

FUTURES TRADING SOLOUTIONS

ONE44 will change the way you receive your market analysis. The ONE44 Platform combines real-time in depth technical market analysis, streaming market data, intra-day charting and audible market commentary.

ONE44 is a platform that provides real-time support & resistance levels for the futures markets.

ONE44 is a desktop application for the PC running Windows. It is powered by live market analysts who follow Fibonacci and W.D. Gann technical analysis rules.

The ONE44 platform is not your average 'Support & Resistance Sheet.' The futures markets are extremely volatile and opportunities come into play throughout the trading day, ONE44 can place these opportunities directly your hands.

- High probable trade opportunities
- Intra-day market analysis updates
- Multiple daily trade opportunities
- Solid real-time platform
- 24/5 platform accessibility
- Competitive service pricing

PAST SYSTEM PERFORMANCE

The table below shows the simulated results of taking advantage of every trade opportunity.

Win/Loss	FEB	MAR	APR	Total
ES	34/25	66/45	53/32	67
Total Profitable Trades				67

Note: A profitable trade is based on the market moving two handles in your favor upon entering the trade.

REAL-TIME DELIEVERY

The ONE44 platform delivers all information in real-time directly to your desktop. Including, buy & sell levels, short term and long term market analysis and market data.

MARKET DATA

Real-time market data is provided so you can track every trade opportunity. Market data is currently available for the Emini S&P and NASDAQ contract on GLOBEX.

KNOW YOUR STOP LOSS

All recommendations on the ONE44 Platform use a set 2.00 point stop loss (4.00 in NQ).

LIVE TEXT MESSAGE UPDATES

All messages available on the desktop can be sent directly to your cell phone. You have the option to change when and what you will be texted.
